Confirmation of de facto partnership The undersigned person hereby confirms to be living in a partnership. A partnership that constitutes grounds for entitlement to benefits must be made known before the insured person's date of death.

Confirmation by insured The insured hereby confirms that

- he/she is not related to the life partners;
- both life partners are unmarried and not living in a registered partnership and
- he/she is living in a life partnership with a joint household, or

- that he/she supports the life partner to a significant degree, or
- that he/she has one or more dependant(s) with the life partner.

Notes Beneficiary clause

The insured acknowledges that in the event of his/her death the partner will be a beneficiary pursuant to the general beneficiary provisions of the pension fund regulations. This is subject to the condition that a surviving partner's pension has been insured and that the insured and his/her partner lived in a partnership entitling the partner to a pension pursuant to the regulations (see information on the right).

c) both partners lived together in a domestic partnership without interruption during the last five years before the death of the insured, or the surviving partner was supported to a considerable extent by the insured, or the surviving partner is responsible for the maintenance of one or more joint children.

Life partnership entitling a partner to a pension
 A life partnership entitling a partner to a pension exists if, at the time of death,

- a) both partners are unmarried and are not related to each other, and
- b) they are not registered in accordance with the Federal Law on the Registration of Partnerships for Same-Sex Couples of June 18, 2004, and lived in a life partnership with a joint household

There shall be no entitlement to a surviving partner's pension if the surviving partner already receives a surviving spouse's pension or surviving partner's pension from a domestic or foreign pension plan.
